Irina focuses on life sciences companies and has a strong track record in all areas of capital markets, public reporting, structuring and negotiating complex agreements, public and private financings, and mergers and acquisitions. She also advises clients regarding corporate strategies and governance.

Prior to joining Lowenstein Sandler, Irina served as Senior Director, Legal Assistant Corporate Secretary for Savient Pharmaceuticals Inc., a specialty biopharmaceutical company. Her responsibilities there included a broad spectrum of corporate compliance, pharma-compliance, and transactional matters. Irina has extensive experience working across functional groups to further the clinical development and launch of pharmaceutical products. Previously, she handled complex corporate and commercial matters for large law firms, where her clients ranged from startups to multinational conglomerates.
