Wojciech represents businesses, unions, pension funds, buyers, and creditors in all aspects of corporate restructuring and turnarounds, liquidations, debtor-creditor law, bankruptcy, and commercial litigation. He also represents purchasers of distressed assets, parties to out-of-court workouts, trustees, and post-confirmation trusts, as well as plaintiffs and defendants in avoidance actions throughout the United States. Throughout his career, Wojciech has advised clients in a wide range of industries, including media, hospitality, retail, airline, pharmaceutical, poultry, nursery, fiber optics, nutritional supplements, and manufacturing.

As a former clerk for two federal bankruptcy judges, Wojciech garnered invaluable insights into the bankruptcy process, which continue to inform the comprehensive and highly efficient legal representation he provides to clients.

In addition to his law degree, Wojciech holds a certification of Corporate Counsel from Syracuse College of Law's Center for Law & Business Enterprise. He is fluent in Polish and is a member of the Polish American Chamber of Commerce, as well as numerous other U.S.-based and international organizations.
