Michael is a member of the firm's Corporate practice group.

As a summer associate at Lowenstein, he worked on several complex interdisciplinary deals with members of the Private Equity, Investment Management, Fund Formation & Structuring, and Transactions & Advisory Groups.

While in law school, Michael interned at the Cook County State's Attorney's Office in Chicago, IL; within the Felony Trial Division, he drafted motions, performed research, and prepared evidence and witnesses in criminal cases including murder trials. He also studied international business law at a program in Hamburg, Germany.

Michael has participated in numerous political campaigns, in addition to volunteering in prison outreach initiatives and supporting an Illinois non-profit aimed at helping urban "food deserts."
