

Timothy N. MacKay

Associate

New York

T: +1 973.422.2940 | F: +1 973.597.2400

tmackay@lowenstein.com

Tim is a member of the Corporate practice where he focuses on transactional matters. As a former Lowenstein summer associate, he has also worked on pro bono matters pertaining to family separations.

Proficient in Mandarin, Tim spent four years in Shenyang, China, where he taught English and history at the high school and university levels. He has published several works of fiction and non-fiction.

NEWS & INSIGHTS

In the Media

> June 20, 2020

Lowenstein's representation of Provention Bio, Inc., (Nasdaq: PRVB) in its underwritten public offering, which grossed approximately $110 million, is highlighted in the Global Legal Chronicle. The Lowenstein deal team includes Michael J. Lerner, Steven M. Skolnick, James C. Shehan, Sarah P. Cole, and Timothy N. MacKay. View Lowenstein's news announcement about this transaction.

EDUCATION

- > Washington University School of Law (J.D. 2019); senior staff editor, Washington University Jurisprudence Review; Certificate in Business Law
- > University of Alabama-Birmingham (B.A. 2011); Grace Lindsley Waits Scholarship for Writing

ADMISSIONS

- > Admitted in New Jersey Only