Jeremy's practice focuses on corporate bankruptcy and creditors' rights matters, including bankruptcy-related litigation. He frequently represents unsecured creditors' committees and creditors' trusts in complex Chapter 11 plans, liquidations, and reorganizations.

Some of the representations in which Jeremy has served as a team member include the Official Committees of Unsecured Creditors of Century 21 Department Stores, Bumble Bee Parent, Exide Holdings, Yueting Jia, Murray Metallurgical Coal Holdings, Congoleum Corporation, and the parent company of Kings/Balducci's. He has also represented the debtors in the Hollister Construction Services and Mountain Creek Resort Chapter 11 bankruptcies.

His class action matters include the representation of parties in the Hertz Corporation and Think Finance bankruptcy proceedings, and he has also represented major creditors of MTE Holdings and Le Tote (Lord & Taylor).

Jeremy's pro bono work includes representing individuals and a nonprofit organization in bankruptcy and foreclosure-related matters. He also supports the firm's Tenancy Clinic and its Election Protection efforts.

Prior to joining Lowenstein, Jeremy served as law clerk to the Hon. Cecelia G. Morris, Chief Judge of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, and the Hon. John K. Sherwood of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey.
