T: +1 212.419.5883 | F: +1 973.597.2400

Rachel counsels both corporate clients and high net worth individuals on a variety of domestic and cross-border tax issues.

She focuses a significant portion of her practice on tax matters relating to private equity transactions and other transactional tax matters, including business formations, taxable and tax-free mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, financings, and restructurings and recapitalizations. She also counsels on debt and equity offerings and fund formation issues, including fund structuring and partnership tax matters.

For her private clients, Rachel advises on a variety of individual and private foundation tax matters, as well as tax matters relating to their business interests. She has extensive experience advising both high net worth individuals and nonprofits on structuring investments both into and out of the United States.
